ORFORDVILLE CLASS OF

'57

1957 CLASS REUNION-AUGUST 12, 1967

TEN YEARS

The Orfordville High School Class of 1957 held their ten year reunion at the Chalet Rathskeller in Brodhead, Wisconsin. A cocktail time from 6:30 to 7:30 started the evening.

Then following the dinner, a program was planned by Mr. D. L. McGinnis, Class Advisor, as the Guest of Honor. Mrs. Shirley (Farrey) Busky and Mr. Dallas Grenawalt, were Mistress and Master of Cermonies. Gifts were presented to those who qualified--came the furthest and had the most children, etc.

At 9:00 we were serenaded with music and we danced til the place closed. A wonderful time was had by all.

EXPENSES FOR THE EVENING

The cost for the family style dinner per person was $3.25, including tip and tax. There were mailing expenses and also the cost for prizes, etc.

After the $3.25 was taken out for the meal, that left us with $.75 per person to cover the above expenses. The money left over will be held in a savings until the next reunion.

CLASS REUNION

Dear Reunion Chairman: I Hope to be there
If I can decide on just what I should wear.
Being female, I'm positive you'll understand
There's something all wrong with whatever's
on hand:

The blue dacron's too fussy, the black too
severe,

And the knit suit's a trifle too snug in the rear.

I'm a little reluctant to make reservations
Until I have solved other small complications;

I'll come if I locate somebody somewhere

Who can manage to do something "chic" to my hair,

And I'd love to stroll through those old buildings
and grounds,

Provided by then I have lost fifteen pounds!

THANK YOU MEMBERS

We wish to thank the following class members
for putting their time, organization ability, money and efforts in making our first tenth
union possible:

Pat (Dahse) Peckham
Rosie (Wells) Conaway
Eileen (Potter) Draves
Donna (Ruef) Edmonds
Janet (Saevre) Hillison
Kathy (Tuck) Mendenhall

SPECIAL THANKS TO KATHY MENDENHALL

For contributing her time, efforts, fast talking, putting up with her daughter, Maureen Kelly, at the business office, and inability to type, for this lousy booklet, which didn't cost us a cent!!

OUR CLASS

While looking back at the days gone past,
We realize then that they sure have gone fast.
When Freshmen we were quite timid and shy,
But somehow or another we managed to get by.

Uh-huh (uh-huh) Uh-huh, Mm mm Mm mm!
As Freshmen, As Freshmen, anyone will have to say
Whatever we did, we did it the right way!

Then next we were Sophmores ever so bold,
What to do we didn't have to be told.
We'll boast and we'll brag of the Freshmen
we initiated,
But we did it in fun, didn't want to be hated.

Uh-huh (uh-huh) Uh-huh, Mm mm Mm mm!
As Sophmores, as Sophmores it sure was great fun,
Knowing then half the battle was over and won.

A Junior is some one both happy and sad.
For there's work to be done, and fun to be had.
We'll never forget our prom and class play.
They're our favorite memories yet to this day.

Uh-huh (uh-huh) Uh-huh, Mm mm Mm mm!
A Junior, Oh, A Junior, anyone will agree,
Whatever they are they're happy as can be.

Now that we're Seniors who'll soon graduate,
To leave Orford High we surely do hate.
We've loved every moment that we've been here,
And in our hearts you'll always be dear.

Uh-huh (uh-huh) Uh-huh, Mm mm Mm mm!
As Seniors, As Seniors we now will part,
With many happy memories left in our heart.

CLASS POEM

"We the Class of '57----Before we leave we'll introduce to you----
Each member of our Class, so loyal and true."

Bernard B. is opposite of riot,
Never too loud, always so quiet.

Elizabeth B. we all think is fine:
Studies and horses take up her time.

Pat Dahse a well-mannered Lass,
Is always an asset to our Class.

When the teacher of Geometry calls for a quiz--
Eugene E. is ready, for he is a whiz.

Shirley can lead the folks in a yell!
For this we know who does so well.

Who's that reading that western story,
Oh! that's Benny Francis in his glory.

Butch our manager, is everyone's friend,
Never defeated, he's there till the end.

Though Iolene G. is rather shy,
She will get there, by and by.

Dallas G. who's so lanky and lean--
Did very well on the basketball team.

Rodney Heyerdahl is an athletic guy,
Tall and handsome, but Oh! so shy.

LeRoy Hodel has a drawl so slow--
But with motorcycle and car, he's ready to go.

Next comes Donna Lehr who's seldom heard.
But she will get by without a word.

our glorious school home!

SENIORS OF '57

CLASS REUNION

It was a beautiful sunny day when the Orford High School, Class of 1957, held their reunion at Prudy National Park in Orfordville. As I, Liz Bohnhoff, (designer of horseshoe nails) was walking near the shelter house, I saw an old friend of mine, Shirl Farrey. This was the first time I'd seen Shirl since we graduated ten years ago and I was very happy to see her. She told me that she gives dancing lessons. One of her most famous dances is the "Pat Presley Bop". We stood talking for a little longer then decided to go on and see who else we could find. That's when we saw Pat Dahse with one of her famous quarter horses from her ranch in Oklahoma. She tied her horse to a tree and continued to walk on with us.

As we were wandering around the picnic grounds, we saw this "fabulous" woman sitting on a bench. We sat down to talk with her and it happened to be one of our classmates, Kathy Tuck. She told us that she sings opera in New York! We asked her where she buys her beautiful clothes, and she answered that Iolene Gilbertson designed them for her. While talking to Kathy, we noticed a poor looking lady and as she came closer we recognized her as Janet Saevre. Janet had always said she was in school that she wanted to be a "bum" and travel around the world, but we had never believed her.

After talking to those two girls, our walk continued. Suddenly we saw several girls sitting around this one man. So we thought we would investigate and see who the lucky guy was. To our great surprise it was Jim Long. He told us that he has a "Harem" in Egypt, and that Benny Francis teaches his wives English.

Under a big oak tree, there were two gentlemen talking together. Coming closer we found out that one was a woman. After talking to them a few minutes they told us who they were; one was Donna Ruef who drives a stock car at the Indianapolis Speedway, because there was good money in the business, and the other was LeRoy Hodel, who enjoys his occupation delivering mail around the Coast of Africa on his motorcycle.

We decided to sit down and rest awhile when suddenly two women started doing some very strenuous exercises. It made us tired just to watch them. We asked Donna Ruef who they were and she said that they were the "Worlds Championship Tag Team Wrestlers", none other than Dorlyn Wenger and Donna Lehr.

After resting for awhile we went on our way and much to our surprise we saw a man leading a tame lion (anyways, we had hoped he was tame). It was Bernard Badtke! Bernard said that he had a pet bear and boaconstrictor at the Brookfield Park Zoo in Chicago, Illinois.

Sitting in a circle were several men arguing, so we thought we would take a walk over there and find out what they were arguing about! Sitting in this circle were Terry Royce, Rodney Heyerdah, Merlin Maveus and Duane Ruef. Come to find out, they were arguing over who had the best jobs. We couldn't decide, so we will ask you. Going around the circle, we'll tell you what they do: Terry is now president of his own "Brewery Company", Rodney now plays the bugle for the "Fox Hunt" over in England, Merlin Maveus is now the "Greatest Shorty" Tight-Rope Walker and Duane Ruef is the great "Politician" here in Wisconsin.

After talking with him for awhile, we suddenly saw a man with green hair! As he came closer, we recognized him as Eugene Engen. He told us that he now styles "Hair" over in Paris. Along with him was another old friend, Donna Lindeman, who is a secretary for the "Milwaukee Braves", who have won the pennant for the last three years. Donna is very proud of them.

We soon met Mrs. Victor Stavn, whose maiden name was Rosie Wells, discussing the possibility for building contracts in Africa with Sharon Nelson who had been exploring.

By themselves discussing business was Kenton Roehl and Rosemary Perkins. Rosemary told us that she now owns the "Perky Restaurant" in Hollywood, California, and she also said that Kenton raises the snails for her restaurant. A man with fourteen kids following him soon joined us, and to our surprise it was Wayne Lund. He told us that he now teaches a course in baby care to the Hawaiian Ladies.

Also at the picnic grounds were two men talking with a native. We soon discovered that one was Dallas Grenawalt, who now sells pigs to Rodney Gilbert and he told us that he now owns a shack down in the Ozark Mountains, and added that it is a "bachelors' home".

The former Eileen Potter, now Mrs. Harley Draves, was proudly showing off her triplets to Don Simonson and Stan Moore. Don is the director of the Howdy Doody Show, and Stan portrays the character of "Clarabell".

The day was climaxed by Joann Stauffacher's big python snake, Sylvester, doing the mambo as Joann Stauffacher accompanied it on her clarinet. Also doing a dance to the tune of the clarinet was Mrs. Robert Thostenson, the former Pat Reavi doing the great Presley Ballet.
